Building on the achievements of Ponlok Chomnes I (2019-2023) which aimed to strengthen the capacity of Cambodian knowledge sector institutions for quality research, The Asia Foundation is implementing the Ponlok Chomnes II: Data and Dialogue for Development in Cambodia Program (2023–2027). Supported by the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT), this program’s goal is to contribute to public policy decisions, based on evidence and informed by inclusive dialogue, are operationalised and become the norm in Cambodia.

Program Outcomes

Intermediate Outcome 1:
Select policy research draws on diverse and inclusive evidence sources

Intermediate Outcome 2:
Select policy research findings are effectively communicated to diverse stakeholders

Intermediate Outcome 3:
Inclusive and collaborative policy dialogue processes trialled with diverse policy actors

Intermediate Outcome 4:
Women (and other excluded groups) substantively engage in select policy research and dialogue processes

End of Program Outcome
By 2027, selected public policy processes involve inclusive dialogue and are informed by diverse, credible, evidence

Integrating gender equality, disability and social inclusion, and climate change considerations throughout the program

“The Asia Foundation has been working for peace and prosperity with the people of Cambodia since 1955.”
Approaches and Strategies

Strategising
Identify and leverage opportunities rather than problems

Integrating
Integrate climate adaptation actions and gender equality, disability and social inclusion (GEDSI)

Trialing and Learning
Trial different models of inclusive research and dialogue in select policy processes

What We Do

- Credible and Diverse Evidence
  Develop research that draws on diverse and inclusive evidence sources

- Inclusive Dialogues
  Convene inclusive and collaborative dialogues

Program Partners

- Partner Driven
  Based on partners’ interests and strengths

- Supporting Partnerships
  Government, academia, civil society organisations, young researchers, development partners and communities

SELECTED POLICY ISSUES
- Climate change, livelihood, and migration
- Climate-resilient technologies in the agriculture sector
- Inclusive and quality education
- Rethinking rural development models
- Re-imagining ASEAN
- Women, Peace, and Security

The program’s focus is flexible; while it begins with selected policy issues, it can adapt to include other policy issues or shift focus as it progresses.

Supporting Emerging, Homegrown Talent
Supporting young and emerging researchers through fellowship programs

Positioning in Policy Processes
Focused on building relationships, trust, acceptance and networks

Effective Communications
Effectively communicate research findings to diverse audiences

Meaningful Participation
Enhance the voices of women, people with disabilities and other social disadvantaged groups within program activities

Engage With Us

- www.policypulse.org
- policypulse@asiafoundation.org
- @PonlokChomnes
- @AustralianEmbassyPhnomPenh
- @PonlokChomnes

Technical Steering Committee
Semi-formal, technical, consists of government, key experts, academia, and civil society organisations

Strategic Partners
Five Cambodian research institutes leveraging their expertise to undertake policy research, communication, and dialogues

GEDSI Consortium
Three Cambodian civil society organisations with expertise in gender equality and disability rights

Innovation Partners
Up to six small grants to support innovative research and dialogue

SheThinks Network
A women’s research network in Cambodia aimed at empowering women and fostering inclusivity in research